

ERIC HORGAN CLINIC

Nov 22 - 24, 2019

Held at NOFTZ ARABIANS

806 Chason Rd, Lumber Bridge, NC 28357

Eric Horgan has over 30 years of world-class competitive and training experience, including multiple European, World Championship and Olympic events. He is a former Olympian that offers instruction and coaching in eventing, dressage and show jumping, officiates at international competitions, and consults in management and course design for three-day events, horse trials and other equestrian competitions.

A highly popular instructor, he works with riders of all levels to develop their skills and refine their communication with their horses to improve performance. With a special affinity for young riders, Eric coached the Irish Junior Show Jumping Team to a European Championship silver medal, and a Pony Team to the European Team gold medal.

Eric also serves on the Instructors' Certification Committee of the United States Eventing Association. This select committee comprised of professional instructors, coaches and active event riders has begun an important effort to develop standards for certification of instructors of eventing in the U.S.

More information about Eric Horgan is located on his personal website: www.EricHorgan.com.

Stabling is available first come first serve for an additional fee. For more information about the facility, check out their website at <http://www.noftzarabians.com>. Semi-private lessons (75 mins) at $125 per horse, Group Lessons (90 mins) and Private lessons (45 mins) select few available.
